

Adult Day Services—Deerfield

Give our program
a try with a FREE
trial day!

Designed for older adults with dementia, Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, and related conditions. ADS is a structured and supervised environment providing peace of mind for participants and family caregivers alike.

- Programs are different each day and integrate memory support, health and wellness, and the creative arts.
- A caring, professional staff with training in dementia and age-related issues, including a nurse.
- Participants enjoy music, art, and dance therapies.
- Open Monday through Friday with no long-term commitment required.
- Attend between one to five days per week.
- Kosher lunch and snacks served daily and additional meals are available.
- Transportation available within specific boundaries, for an additional fee.
- Personal care services available.
- Family caregiver support group offered.
